II. ADMINISTRATIVE WETLAND PERMIT ELIGIBILITY

The Administrative Wetland Permit process allows for the issuance of administrative wetland permits for activities that will not impair the functions and benefits of wetlands and wetland buffers. These provisions are applicable only to those regulated activities listed below. Please check which category(ies) your application falls within. Your project must meet at least one of the eligibility criteria/categories listed in order for an administrative wetlands permit to be issued.

Activities Requiring/Eligible for an Administrative Wetlands Permit

- Construction, installation or removal of a fence, open arbor, trellis or other similar structure, provided that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Pruning, removal of nuisance and dead and diseased vegetation or supplemental planting of native vegetation, provided that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Planting, seeding, cultivating, or maintaining with the use of fertilizers, other than those activities exempted under Section 225-4B(4) and 225-6A(3) where such activities would occur no closer than 75 feet landward of the wetlands boundary and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands. Where such regulated activities are proposed on undeveloped property (ies), the minimum setbacks shall be one hundred feet (100) for turf, fertilizers, pesticides, herbicides, fungicides or similar treatments, landscaping or other clearing or disturbance of natural vegetation.
- Environmental testing activities, including test borings, soil sampling, environmental assessment and inventory activities and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Actions designed to provide structural support to buildings and structures that have incurred or are in imminent peril of incurring structural damage, without which such buildings may suffer further failure and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Demolition or removal of any material or structure provided that a project limiting fence is installed to contain disturbance if deemed appropriate and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Restoration of wetlands and wetland buffers that were destroyed, substantially altered or degraded due to filling, excavation, drainage, clearing and/or invasion by nuisance plants, including restoration of natural ground elevations, natural hydrology, removal of non-native or nuisance vegetation and planting of native vegetation or habitat management techniques designed to enhance wetland values and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.

- Construction of additions to the landward side of an existing functional single family dwelling, where such dwelling generally lies parallel to the wetland boundary, provided that a non-disturbance/non-fertilization buffer at least fifty feet (50) in width would be maintained.
- Construction of additions to an existing structure, other than those set forth under Section 225-7B(8), where such activities would occur no closer than 100 feet landward of the wetlands boundary, provided that a non-fertilization/non-disturbance buffer zone at least 75 feet in width would be maintained, and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands, provided that such residence is equipped with a septic system that meets current Suffolk County Department of Health Services standards.
- Remodeling, renovation or reconstruction of a structure to comply with Section 330- 84D (Pyramid Law) of the Town Code and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Construction of accessory structures for existing single family dwellings, where such activities would occur no closer than 100 feet landward of the wetlands boundary, provided that a non-disturbance/non-fertilization buffer at least 75 feet in width would be maintained, and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Construction of new single family dwellings, where such activity and all associated land disturbance would occur no closer than 125 feet landward of the wetlands boundary, provided that a non-disturbance/non-fertilization buffer of at least 100 feet in width would be maintained and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Construction within the existing foot print of the primary and accessory structures, provided that such activity would occur no closer than 75 feet landward of the wetlands boundary and provided that a non-disturbance/non-fertilization buffer zone of at least 50 feet would be maintained and provided further that such residence would be equipped with a septic system located no closer than 150 feet from the wetlands boundary and such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Construction of pervious residential driveways or walkways, where such activities would occur no closer than 75 feet landward of the wetlands boundary and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.
- Construction of access related structures, including, but not limited to, structures needed to ensure American Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance, such as stairs, ramps, walkways, trails and/or other similar structures, provided that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to the wetlands.

- The demolition, removal, relocation, repair and/or upgrading of existing fuel tanks, fuel lines, fuel dispensers, cesspools, septic systems, or sanitary wastewater activities, including necessary site work and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes, or other steep slopes adjacent to wetlands.
- Installation and connection of underground electric, sewer, water, gas, or other utilities to a residence where such installation will occur no closer than 75 feet landward of the wetlands boundary and will involve restoration of existing ground elevation and vegetation and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to wetlands.
- Open water marsh management measures and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to wetlands.
- Construction of berms no closer than 75 feet landward of the wetlands boundary, and 100 feet for undeveloped property(ies) and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to wetlands.
- Construction or installation of drainage structures for the retention of runoff provided that such structure incorporates the maximum feasible setback from wetlands and provided further that such activity will not have an undue adverse impact on wetlands, bluffs, cliffs, dunes or other steep slopes adjacent to wetlands.
- Renewal and/or transfer of all permits on the same conditions as the original permit if there is no change in the natural or physical conditions or characteristics of the project site which would warrant reconsideration of the permit. Renewal and/or transfer of all permits shall be for a period of one year.
- Improvement of existing driveways, but limited to adding curbing, entrance gates, lighting and improving drainage systems.
